

Play Without Barriers Foundation Application Form

The Play Without Barriers (PWB) Foundation provides financial assistance to youth who are experiencing economic hardships, enabling them to join officially recognized sports programs. Our objective is to remove financial barriers that hinder young people from participating in sports, making sure that every child has the opportunity to be involved.

For additional information, visit www.pwbfoundation.ca or email support@pwbfoundation.ca

Eligibility

We take into account a family's social and economic situation during eligibility assessments. Key factors we consider include:

- Low-income families
- On assured income for disability program (ex. AISH)
- Employment status
- Receiving income support from the provincial government
- Youth aged between 12-21

Scope

PWB Foundation offers grants of up to $500 per eligible child per calendar year (Jan 1 – Dec 31) for sport registration fees.

PWB grants do not cover:

- Travel expenses for competitions
- Programs led by unqualified instructors

Instructions

1. Enroll your child in the desired sports program.
2. Apply using the online form or the provided paper application form.
3. Inform the sports organization that you are seeking financial assistance from PWB Foundation.
4. Complete all sections of the application form.
5. This application can be submitted to support@pwbfoundation.ca

*PWB Foundation reviews applications within 30 days. Approved grants are directly disbursed to the sports club within two weeks of the review date. You will receive a confirmation email regarding your application status.

Please note that incomplete applications will result in a minimum four-week delay in processing.
